

Personal details:

Name and Surname: Ewa Lisowska
Country: Poland
Workplace: Warsaw School of Economics
e-mail: ewael@sgh.waw.pl

Chosen publications:

- Lisowska E., Self-employment and motherhood: the case of Poland, in: Women's Entrepreneurship in the 21st Century: An International Multi-level Research Analysis, Ed. by K.V. Lewis, C. Henry, E.J. Gatewood and J. Watson, Edward Elgar Publishing Inc. 2014
- Lisowska E., Przedsiębiorczość kobiet w Polsce na tle krajów Europy Środkowej i Wschodniej [Women's entrepreneurship in Poland on the background of the Central and Eastern European countries], SGH [Warsaw School of Economics], Warsaw 2001
- Lisowska E., Women on corporate boards: diversity vs. patriarchal order, "Women and Business" 2012, No. 1-4, pp. 38-47

Chosen studies:

- 2011-2012: „Equal treatment as the standard for good governance” – I was the coordinator of empirical research which was covered 17 government's institutions and all employed persons. It was financed by the European Social Fund
- 2006–2008: „New qualification, work and entrepreneurship for unemployed women”, carried by National Chamber of Commerce and Warsaw School of Economics, financed by the European Social Fund. Six thousand women were involved in the project. I managed the training program and research.
- 2004-2007: „Gender Index” – I managed the work of the team of 9 experts. The goal of the project was to develop a novel indicator of equal treatment for men and women in the workplace; financed by the European Social Fund within the EQUAL

Other important information:

- In 2011, I was the consultant of research tools and analysis of the survey "Barriers to Women's Entrepreneurship" which was carried out by Polish Agency for Enterprise Development